FREE WORKSHOP

March 23rd, 2019

At the Yakima Area Arboretum
1401 Arboretum Dr, Yakima, WA 98901

9:00 AM — 12:00 PM

Featuring:

Heather Wendt, Heritage Garden Program Coordinator, and Ann Autrey, Heritage Garden Program Assistant

Heather and Ann are excited to introduce the Heritage Garden Program to the Yakima area. This program is dedicated to creating water-wise landscapes and gardens in the arid portion of the Columbia River Basin of Washington State. In addition to water conservation, Heritage Gardens incorporate and honor unique natural and cultural features of this area.

Jeff DeBlasio - Outside Sales, Irrigation, HD Fowler Company, Yakima

Jeff will present the basics on drip or Micro Irrigation, showing how to provide water where and when it is needed. Micro Irrigation (also called drip irrigation, low volume irrigation and low flow irrigation) is an irrigation method with lower pressure and flow than a traditional sprinkler system utilizing pipe, filters, valves, tubing and emitters. Utilizing this effective irrigation practice can improve yield and quality, minimize water use and protect natural resources.
